

- An application that searches a certain radius to find restaurants near the device. The user then chooses from the list depending on their preferences, and it will give directions and play music using the landmarks/stores of the path given. (could use sentiment analysis), also taking into account the current weather.
- App that analyzes your spotify/apple music playlists and gives of a corresponding mood/avatar for your profile.
 -
- Take a picture of yourself and the app will figure out based on your emotions what playlist to give you for that day.
- An application for tech devices that lets users auction personal electronic devices (macbooks, headphones, computers, etc.)
 - Allows users to submit their product, bid for other products, and buyout
- An app that checks drug interactions to give recommendations for drugs safe to take with each other, and drugs to take if you are already on a certain drug. Can also recommend snacks, drinks, music etc. based on drug mix.